DISSEMINATION OF NATIONAL INTELLIGENCE TO FOREIGN GOVERNMENTS

Procedure for release of national intelligence documents to foreign governments in pursuance of NSCID 1, revised, will be as follows:

National Intelligence Estimates

1. At the final meeting of the IAC representatives on a National Intelligence Estimate prior to IAC consideration, the representatives will be requested to indicate the foreign governments which in their view should receive the estimate.

2. These proposals will be disseminated to the IAC members by the Secretary for concurrence. It is understood that any agency upon receipt of such proposal may request the Secretary to call together the representatives of the agencies for discussion of any issue involved. In the event of the nonconcurrence of any IAC member to a proposal to disseminate the issue will be placed on the agenda of the IAC.

Other Types of National Intelligence

3. Proposals for the dissemination to foreign governments of other types of national intelligence will be submitted to the Secretary of the IAC who will carry out the procedure outlined in paragraph 2 above.

Notification of Dissemination

4. The agency serving as executive agent for the dissemination of a particular category of national intelligence will notify the Secretary of the IAC when the authorized dissemination has been made and this will be reported in the IAC minutes for the information of all concerned.
